

List of persons interviewed:

MR. HENRY J. RICHARDSON--former local attorney, civil rights leader
MR. FRED PARKER--former IPS teacher/administrator, civil rights advocate, member Senate Ave. Committee of 100
MR. RICH. EMERY--former IPS administrator, principal Harry E. Wood HS
MR. SAM JONES--director Urban League
DR. KARL KALP--former IPS teacher/administrator/superintendent
DR. JOSEPH TAYLOR--civil rights advocate, IUPUI official/professor
DR. WALLER--Butler University historian
DR. KEITH WATSON--Christian Theological Seminary historian
MS. JANET CHEATMAN-BELL—1950s graduate of Manual, nationally acclaimed author of the book. The time and place that gave me life
MR. DON MASON—former IPS teacher at Wood HS
MR. DONALD PAYTON—former IPS school board member
MR. WEISWERG--1920's graduate of Manual High School
MR. DICK NUTALL--former IPS teacher/administrator
MR. CARL DORTCH--former director Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce
MR. WILLARD RANSOM--lawyer, civil rights leader
MS. NANCY BAXTER--local publisher, daughter of Judge Niblack
MS. MARY STUDEBAKER--former state librarian
DR. JAMES DIVITA--Marian College instructor. Catholic historian
MR. GRANT HAWKINS--former IPS board member
MS. CAROLYN DUNN--former state librarian
MS. DEVILLE WILLIAMS--former IPS teacher/principal
MR. JOE SMITH Sr--former aide to Sen. Birch Bayh, civil rights advocate
MR. JOHN KONDELIK--Butler Librarian and historian
MR. ABE SHAPIRO--owner of restaurant
MR. JOE HICKS--1920's graduate of Manual High School
MR. THURMAN RIDGE--1920's graduate of Shortridge and Butler
MR. TOM JETT--former IPS teacher/administrator/principal Wood High School
MR. CLOYD JULIAN--former principal George Washington High School
MS. FRANCIS LITHECOME--former IPS teacher/principal/Butler graduate
MR. ROY ABERSON--former Shortridge teacher/civil rights advocate
MR. & MS. FANGMEIR--civil rights advocates
MR. CLAY TRUSTY JR--Butler graduate, newsman with STAR/NEWS, son of Clay Sr.
MS. FAYE WILLIAMS--local attorney, civil rights advocate
MR. CORBIN PATRICK--1920s Cathedral grad, newsman with STAR/NEWS
MR. ALVIN BYNUM--local educator, desegregation advocate, historian
MS. MC INTOCH--former Tech High teacher from 1920's on
MR. DEAN EVANS--local educator, Washington Township/state superintendent
MR. CHARLES BOSWELL--former Shortridge student and mayor of Indpls
MR. GEORGE CAFOUROS-1930 Sacred Heart High grad, editor Spotlight south side newspaper
MR. FABURN DE FRANTZ--son of Robert an IPS board member
MS. DONNA MILLS--former Butler area resident and teacher in Gary during the 1950s desegregation events
REV. THOMAS L. BROWN--civil rights advocate, former IPS board member, and son of Andrew J. Brown Indy civil rights leader
MS. MILDRED LOWE--early Howe High teacher—1930s
MR. R. V. JONES--Washington High School student late 1920s
MR. ELSTON BENEDICT--local educator, civil rights advocate
MR./MRS. LOU COOK--former Manual High students, 1920s
DR JOHN LIELL—IU Professor of Sociology, leader of CAAP, civil rights advocate
MR. DON LARSON--former IPS board member in mid-70s/desegregation
MR. BRUCE LEATCH—former IPS teacher at Wood and Washington HS
MS: BILLIE BREAUX—former IPS teacher, state senator, president of IEA
MS. AMY COOK LURVEY--local civil rights advocate, PTA, special education lobbyist