

DELEGATES AND SPEAKERS AT THE MEETING OF FEDERATION OF COMMUNITY CIVIC CLUBS

The photograph shows a number of the representatives of civic clubs and speakers at the meeting of the Indianapolis Federation of Community Civic Clubs, Friday night, in the Chamber of Commerce building. Those in the picture, reading from left to right are: Front Row—John F. White, secretary of the federation; J. P. Woodson, chairman of the program committee; A. LeRoy Porteus, vice-president of the federation; Frank C. Jordan, chairman of the fire prevention committee of the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce; W. J. Curran, head of Indianapolis salvage corps; Edward O. Snethen, president of the federation; C. A. Johnson, William H. Moore and R. E. Logsdon, director Indiana health exposition. In the second row, reading from left to right, are: Harry Myers and John Hyman, guests of the club; Carl J. Baker, Robert Richardson, W. M. Swain, George W. Beaman, W. F. Batley, E. S. Moore, C. A. Furd, C. P. Reighadt, Joseph E. Eurke and Paul Deeds. In the last row, left to right, are: Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sharp, their daughter, Lenora May; C. E. Paul, S. M. Botts, J. A. Miller, Harry Waldketter and Sumner Clancy.

Clipped By:

johnharrislofin
Mon, Dec 3, 2018