Women and children huddled together in the stations, seeking safety behind marble wainscoting. In addition to negroes under guard at convention hall and elsewhere, negro riot prisoners are in city jail. Prompt medical attention was given to the wounded, negroes as well as whites, at local hospitals and dressing stations. Civic organizations and citizens who volunteered their services cared for the negro refugees, to whom ice water and sandwiches were served throughout the day. Special care was given to the aged and infirm and a call was sent to nearby towns for available nurses. A check of hospitals showed that nearly two score whites were being treated for injuries. More than fifty white patients left the hospitals following treatment, without giving names. Most of the patients had arm and leg wounds and only a few were reported to be in serious condition. Among the seriously wounded was A. B. Stick, city clerk of Sapula, Okla., who was struck by a stray bullet while he was standing on the steps of a hotel. Another of those severely injured was run over by an automobile filled with armed negroes. Dick Rowland, whose arrest precipitated the conflict, was spirited from the city at an early stage in the rioting and lodged at an unnamed place for safekeeping. The authorities say he will receive an early trial. Only one negro unmolested walks the streets of Tulsa tonight. He is Barney Cleaver, negro deputy sheriff, regarded well by both whites and negroes. Not one of the rioters has turned a hand against the peace loving negro, and he is the only one of his race who ventures on the streets without an armed guard. Cleaver has been instrumental in getting hundreds of his race to disarm and seek refuge under the protection of troops. TRAIN BIDDLED WITH SHOT.	Govt ti IN Se ana move prov latur conf bers view comi refor porte near with Ob the Putr Fauv objec stor; Mem noun sible unde that next Un Legl refor state On coun ing ing new slder othe avall large LIG
