

26, 1922.

CIVIC COMMITTEES NAMED

Club Federation Leader Adds Members to Each of Eight Bodies.

Appointment of members of the eight standing committees of the Indianapolis Federation of Community Civic Clubs was announced yesterday by B. O. Sneath, president of the federation. The eight chairmen were named some weeks ago. The committees follow:

George W. Beaman, Mapleton Civic Association, chairman of the committee on public schools; C. H. Bird, North Central Civic Association, and Edward J. Sexton, Southeastern Improvement Club.

John F. White, Southeastern Improvement Club, chairman of the committee on markets; Frank Turner, Enterprise Civic League, and Mrs. C. A. James, Brookside Civic Association.

Sumner A. Clancy, Northeastern Civic Association, chairman of the committee on city planning; the Rev. G. C. Baker, Hawthorne Community League, and J. H. Patton, Spades Park Protective Association.

J. Stephen Fullen, Enterprise Civic League, chairman of the committee on public utilities; Edgar Brown, Brightwood Civic League, and John M. Cain, Capitol Avenue Protective Association.

Public Improvements.

William H. Moore, College Avenue Civic Association, chairman of the committee on public improvements and buildings; L. A. Miller, McClainville Improvement Association, and E. S. Moore, Northeastern Community League.

A. LeRoy Porteus, Brookside Civic League, chairman of the committee on parks and recreation; J. J. Fellows, College Avenue Civic Association, and J. C. Woodruff, Southern Civic League.

Dr. Robert Repass, Mapleton Civic Association, chairman of the committee on public health and sanitation; Dr. Walter F. Kelly, East Side Civic League, and Dr. George H. Christian, Southeastern Improvement Club.

Clarence McPherson, Woodside Loyal Civic League, chairman of the committee on miscellaneous affairs; C. E. Paul, East Side Civic League, and W. M. Swain, Riverside Civic League.

Clipped By:

johnharrislofin
Sat, Dec 22, 2018