

Resources for diversity and inclusion in Democratic Education

- 2003 IDEC Report Troy, New York "Common Sense"
- The Common Good Responsibilities of Private Learning Alternatives
- A history of democratic education in American public schools: Schools in a democracy and democracy in schools + Discussions and recommendations concerning issues of democratic education in urban schools and civic engagement by urban students
- 2006 IDEC, Sydney: Education or Neo-colonialism?
- 2008 IDEC Vancouver PowerPoint: Why are there no inner-city democratic schools run by Black parents and or adults with significant numbers of Black children in the school?
- 2008 IDEC Vancouver: Why are there no democratic schools created by African Americans? Synopsis of discussion with recommendations for IDEC
- Contrasting the relevance of rigor vs. vigor to African American cultural themes
- Barriers to democratic education for African American children
- 2012 Freedom in Education Conference Tallgrass Sudbury School Chicago, IL
- 2019 Can democratic education be universalized?
- 2019 Review: Can democratic education be universalized?
- 2021 EUDEC Talk: Advancing development of national movements of unconventional approaches to education that's diverse according to culture, race, ethnicity, class, ability, language, and age
- 2021 The International Democratic Education Conference & Black Lives Matter: A talk by John Harris Loflin
- A Civic Literacy: What does a constitutional democratic republic require of its schools?
- Shared decision-making: Multicultural education for the 21st century
- First Amendment Schools: Helping students be active citizens while in their schools